THE GREAT CONTEST

Presidential Election Results in the Several States.

NEW YORK.

ALBANY, Nov. 5.—Latest figures received by Governor Cleveland give a Democratic majority in the state of 2,700.

Latest semi-official returns show a Democratic majority in the state of 3,225. It is not believed, in Democratic circles here, that this will vary more than 200.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Sun has received returns from every county in the state, and has revised returns complete from 54 of the 60 counties. They give Cleveland 1,943 plurality.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The Sun, in a second edition, concedes the election of Cleveland by the vote of New York state, having received further confirmation of its previous figures, putting Cleveland's plurality at 1,643.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—Returns are coming in more rapidly this morning, but the only thing yet definitely known is that the state will be very close. Green county gave a Republican majority of 125, a gain of 27. Posey county gives 600 majority for Cleveland. Ohio county gives a Republican majority of 104, a gain of 13. Scott county gives a Democratic majority of 305, a Democratic gain of 30. A Republican gain of 1,000 is reported from Vanderburg county. Newton county gives a Republican majority of 590, a gain of 35. If the present rate of Republican gains continues the state will be remarkably close and the plurality will not be more than 1,000 either way. It is impossible as yet to state the complexion of the legislature. There is no change in congressmen from the figures sent out last night.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—Returns from Michigan in regard to the fusion vote may be somewhat confusing. The Republican vote is full on the leading candidates. To get the full fusion vote on president it is necessary to add the vote given separately in the bulletins for Cleveland and Butler. If the vote of the state is declared for the fusion ticket, as seems probable at this writing (7 P. M.), Cleveland will receive six electoral votes, Butler six, and one goes for Blaine.

In voting the greenbackers and Democrats voted for the same men for twelve electoral places, and for different men for the thirteen places, which allows a chance for one Blaine elector.

It was desired to find the relative strength of the Greenbackers and Democrats, and hence the vote is sent separately. Reports so far give very little information about the upper peninsula, which is a Republican stronghold, but the indications are for great Democratic gains there.

This afternoon returns were received indicating the election of the fusion state and national tickets, but later figures alter this somewhat. The Democrats now claim the state, but say the vote will be too close to tell so soon.

The Republicans claim the state by a clear majority. The upper peninsula has been heard from in favor of the Republicans, but the exact vote is not yet known.

MAINE.

BLAINE HAS 25,000 MAJORITY.

OHIO.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 5.—Six hundred and sixty-eight of 2,071 precincts in Ohio give a net Republican gain of 12,024 over the vote of last month, an average of 18 per precinct. This rate will give a plurality of 47,222, which will probably be reduced by returns from rural districts.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 5.—The returns and estimates place the Republican plurality in the state at 10,000 or more. The Republicans elect seven out of nine congressmen, a gain of four. The majorities on congressmen range from 700 upward. The legislature is Republican in both branches, insuring the election of a Republican to the United States senate.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—A plurality of 70,000 is indicated for Blaine here. Complete returns from all the legislative districts in the state, except Wayne county, show that the senate will have 31 Republicans and 19 Democrats, and the house 140 Republicans and 59 Democrats.

CONNECTICUT.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 5.—Cleveland carries the state by 1,200 plurality. There is no elect on of governor by the people, Waller, Democrat, failing of a majority by about 1,200. The legislature is largely Republican, and will elect Harrison. This is definite, and reliable, and the result will not be changed.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Nov. 5.—Late returns indicate that the Democrats have carried the state by 8,000 or 10,000 majority.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 5.—The official vote of this city stands: Cleveland 12,258, Blaine 6893; Cleveland's majority in the city 5365. Cleveland's majority in the state will not probably exceed 15,000. The Democrats elect all congressmen except in the second district.

FLORIDA.

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 5.—News received since midnight simply confirms last night's news, that the Democrats have elected their entire ticket.

Gen. Harrison, when he was nominated by the Whigs at Harrisburg in 1840, as their candidate for president, was a tall, thin, careworn old gentleman, who had rotated from one office to another, and who was then clerk of the Hamilton county (Ohio) court. His office was in Cincinnati, but he resided on his farm at North Bend, a few miles lower down on the Ohio river, in a two-story house, a part of which was the original log cabin of pioneer days. This made Baile Payton, of Tennessee, who carried to the general the news of his nomination, say in a speech the next night at Cincinnati, that the Whig candidate lived in a log cabin, with a hatchet, string never pulled in, a barrel of hard cider to treat his friends and coon skins nailed over the cracks in the wall to keep the wind away. This led to the erection of log cabins all over the country by the Whigs, with speeches and songs. Some of the "Tippecanoe and Tyler too" glees, sung by trained voices, were wonderfully effective. Clubs were formed, uniformed in homespun with gilt buttons bearing a log cabin, and a vast majority of the people became infected with Whig principles, singing occasionally: "Van, Van is a used-up man."
